

ERO

DESCENDER

Product

ALU

iruchek

Description

- Made of aluminium.
- Includes anti-panic function and ergonomic lever return spring, minimising the possibility of accidents.
- Excellent control in all types of manoeuvres and unbeatable response on inclined planes and rope recovery work.
- Multifunctional device, certified for loads up to 225kg.

CHARACTERISTICS

|                           |                  |                                    |
|---------------------------|------------------|------------------------------------|
| Technical characteristics | Standard         | EN 12841-C   EN 341-2-A   EN 795-B |
|                           | Weight           | 380g                               |
|                           | Capacity of load | 225kg                              |
|                           | Diameter of rope | 10-12mm                            |
|                           | Shelf life       | Unlimited                          |
| Materials                 | Body             | Aluminium                          |
|                           | Finishing        | Anodised                           |